At the End of Echternach there is a small bridge. Are bicycles allowed to cross the bridge?

-----

Forest on the way to Berdorf:

Search for the sign: "TXXecop" Left side of the road. Close to it you find a picture with a girl!

What is written on the headline?

There is a staircase in the rock next to you. How many stair are leading up to the top of the rock?

-----

You did it ... you don't have to count more stairs... you don't have to climp higher... Take the path on the left...

Go at the edge of the rock. at the very end, surrounded by a handrail you will find a carved heart on the floor. Which letters are carved in the heart?

End of the Berdorf plateaux:

Search for a sign "Mullerthal trail" ... take the path on the right side of the road...

Search for the Sign: "Binzellschluff"... You are on the right path ... The region is famous for some berries that are growing on to of the rock. What berries are we talking about?

-----

Search for a bench to top of the rock. There is a S.I.T. number on that bench... What number?

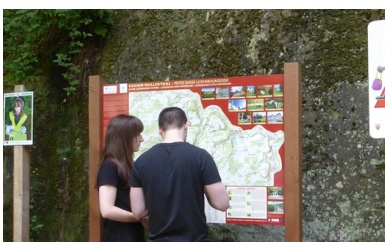

-----

Go back to your bike. On the opposite side is a more touristic rock that you can climb... you can do it, but you don't have to... There is a flag on top of the rock. What colours are on the flag?

On that left side of the road there are three signs. What word is on the top line of the right sign?

Restaurant "Reilander Millen"

Below the painting on the wall you find a hand worked stone that carried in the past a cast plate. How many holes are in it?

Soup

On the left side of the road just before the crossing, behind a bush, you find a sign from the "Ponts & Chaussees". What words are on the top line of the sign?

Meysembourg:

Coming from Angelsberg on the road to Meysembourg, you have to pass a beautiful alley with trees on both sides of the road. What trees are these?

Search for the Castle on the left side of the road. There are some huge pieces of a tree trunk laying in front of the castle. How many of them?

The roof of the castle is covered with windows. How many of them are red? You don't need to climb behind the castle. Lets assume there are no windows on the back side - but don't forget the towers!
